HOW CONGRESS WILL STAND.

REPUBLICAN MAJORITY OF THIRTEEN IN THE HOUSE.

A TALK WITH CHAIRMAN BABCOCK-LONG REPUBLICAN CONTROL OF THE SENATE ASSURED.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Washington, Nov. 10.—The Republican majority in the next House of Representatives, as announced in these dispatches last night, will not be less than thirteen, and according to present indications it will not exceed that number, atthough two Congress districts are still regarded as doubtful. One of them is the Hd California and the other is the XIIth Texas. Chairman Babcock has not been successful in his efforts to communicate with either of these districts today, and is therefore inclined to think that both have given adverse majorities. The delegations by States appear to be as fol- THE EMPUBLICAN PLURALITY SWELLED

Totals	185	16.3	- 5	- 20	2

It is reasonably safe to assume that this Republican total will not be reduced. Unless it should be exceeded the total minority membership would amount to 172, composed of Gold Democrats, Free Sliver Democrats, Demo-Pops, Populists, Fusionists and Silver Republicans-a motley crowd, indeed.

In speaking of the campaign to-day Mr. Babcock said that the result was a magnificent indorsement of the President and the Republican Administration, and would have a greater and more far-reaching influence upon the future of this country than any election held for many

"On National issues," he said, "there never was a question as to the result of the election, but the danger that I saw two months ago came from local differences and from overconfidence and general apathy on the part of the Republicans. The committee made an especial business of seeing that Republicans were wakened to the situation, and the losses suffered in the Eastern and Middle States arise almost entirely from local conditions or the fact that strong Democratic districts were represented by Republicans whom we could not in Massachusetts and four in New-York; but we captured about the same number of districts in the extreme West that few thought it possible to carry, thus leaving the Republican majority in the House just about as the committee had estimated it a fortnight before.

"I feel that the most valuable result of the election to the country generally is that it stamps out the free-silver and flat money idea for many years is come. The make-up of the Senate will be such that sound money control nany years to come. The make-up te will be such that sound money of the disturbed for at least eight cannot be disturbed for at least eight years. Therefore, business men, producers, laborers and financiers can rest assured that no disturbance of the finances can occur during that long period, which, I expect, will be one of the greatest fruitfulness. Even if some miracle should give us a free-silver House and a free-silver President, the Senate will stand as a bulwark against any flat money, or other destructive legislation."

Hudson, N. Y., Nov. 10. The revised figures in Columbia County on the vote for Congressman give Cochrane, Republican, a plurality of 376. The re-vised figures for Rensselaer give Livingston, Democrat, a plurality of 29r, which he itself would elect Livingston for the XIXth District by a margin of sixteen votes. There are, however, forty-one sol-diers from the two counties in camp, and there is much speculation as to the result. It is also known that there are a number of ballots in Columbia that are open to question, and the result will not be definitely scitled until the Board of Canvassers RECOUNT FOR JOSEPH L. WALKER. Workester, Mass., Nov. 10.-The Republican State Committee last night telegraphed to each town and city committee in the HId Congress District directing that a recount be asked. This morning the petitions were placed in circulation. Congressman Walker did not ask for a recount, and has little hope of overcoming the majority of 131 apparently secured by John R. Thayer, Gold Democrat.

A CLOSE DISTRICT IN MINNESOTA.

Duluth, Minn. Nov. 16.-Latest returns and esti-mates have caused the Republican Committee of the VIth Congress District to reduce its estimate of Page Morris's majority to 122. The Democratic committee now claims Charles A. Towne's election by about one hundred and fifty. Several precincts are missing, and the result is in doubt. The official count will probably be necessary to decide the

A Senator chassed as independent is Gray, of Stevens County, who was elected on a Citizene ticket, which was a fusion of Republicans, Silver Republicans and Democrats. Their attitude caused President Quigg of the Republican County Committee to declare that they were brewling something more than beet, and that there would be the liveliest curiority by Republicans as to the kind of beer they were brewling. Republican politicians in the city said yesterday that they believed the brewers could not afford to pay large sums to the Tammany campaign fund every year and heap up such immense fortunes if they manufactured pure beer. For the protection of the public, the politicians said, there should be a State inspection of the brewerles, and the sale of adulterated beer should be prevented absolutely. Senator Ford said he probably would make another attempt to procure legislation of a kind to protect the public against the manufacture of poisonous heer in the State, and he probably will have the support of the Republican majority in the Legislature. Legislature. Senator Platt was asked yesterday if he expected any pure-ber legislation, and he replied: "I don't drink beer myself, but if I did I would want to know that it was pure."

REVOLT AGAINST CROKER.

PLANS OF THOSE DISSATISFIED WITH HIS LEADERSHIP.

A MEETING TO BE HELD SOON-REMARKS OF SOME OF THE LEADERS-MR. CROKER'S

REPLY TO MR. CRIMMINS. The elements within the Democratic party in the enlarged city opposed to Croker and Croker-ism, if combined, would be sufficient to defeat him everwhelmingly in any contest for the leadership. All that is needed is organization, and I am greatly mistaken if such a combination is not effected within a few days or weeks." This statement was made by a Democrat of National prominence yesterday. It has become apparent that the opposition to Croker's leadership is gaining strength every 'ay, and now many who once believed him too securely intrenched to be reached have hopes that he is vulnerable after nil and can be deposed.

There was talk yesterday that a meeting was to be held soon at the Manhattan Club of Democrats who believe that an organization opposed to Tammany Hall should be formed. This statement is said to be somewhat premature, but it is known that a quiet movement is on foot that will within a short time bring about a conference of Dem-ocrats of standing and influence to devise ways and means by which the party can be purified and the present leadership overthrown. The facthat Richard Croker is held personally responsible for the defeat of Justice Van Wyck is the force that is likely to cement the opposition to him, as it gives the elements antagonistic to Tammany Hall a target. There has been a great deal of quiet talk among Tammany men about Croker's leadership, but fear of the boss has caused them to keep from openly expressing their ideas. Others have not b timid. John D. Crimmins yesterday gave out a straight and convincing interview in which he held Croker directly responsible for the defeat of the State ticket. His views in the matter are shared by such men as John De Witt Warner, Everett P. Wheeler, Frederic R. Coudert and scores of other Democrats who supported the State ticket in the recent campaign. It is understood that William H. Clark, Thomas F. Gilroy, Hugh J. Grant, J. J. Martin, John C. Shechan and others hold similar opinions. Henry D. Purroy, W. Bourke Cockran and others who are outside the organization are reported to be ready to join the

CONGRATULATING THE LEADERS

That Mr. Croker fears a general revolt is shown by the eagerness he has displayed within the last twenty-four hours to draw the powerful district leaders to him. He has gone out of his way to congratulate the leaders whose districts made a good showing. James W. Boyle, Charles Murphy, Nicholas J. Hayes, Charles Welde, Daniel F. Me-Mahon, Michael C. Murphy, John B. Sexton and Nicholas Muller have all been cordially greeted. Yesterday there was a report that Martin Engel. "Barney" Martin and "Paddy" Divver were to be turned down for "kitting" figures when they made

Barney Martin and Paddy Diver were turned down for "kiting" figures when they made their estimates. When Mr. Croker was asked as to this he said that he didn't know where the report started, but that it was absolutely untrue, adding: "Tammany Hall is not turning down any of its lenders. They are close to the people, and we helieve that they did the best they could for the tirket. The result shows this."
This is another indication, "said a Tammany mad, in commenting on Mr. Croker's remarks." Croker, aithough angry at these lenders, dares not attempt any high-handed disciplining at this moment, for these men are rien of great influence in their districts, and if deposed it is believed they would join the new movement."
The situation in Brooklyn, too, is not encuraging for Mr. Croker, Hugh McLeughin joined hands with Mr. Croker previous to the State Convention, as he desired the nomination of Van Wyck, But the campaign was parelly two days old before McLaughin began to doubt the wisdom of Croker's acts. He grew more and more convence of the mistakes Croker was making, and when the ticket went down in defeat he spoke freely to his friends and bitterly denounced Croker. Another disturbing element is that Mayor Van Wyck feels his brother's defeat keenly, it when the ficket went down in defeat he spose freely to his friends and bitterly denounced Croker. Another disturbing element is that Mayor Van Wyck feels his brother's defeat keenly. It is said that Justice Van Wyck would never have accepted the nomination if his brother had not urged him to do so, and that the Mayor would never have so urged him save for the direct assurance from Mr. Croker that the Democratic ticket would be elected this fall. The Mayor and the friends of Justice Van Wyck feel that to Croker, and to Croker alone, belongs the burden for the defeat of the ticket.

HIS REPLY TO MR. CRIMMINS.

John D. Crimmins, in speaking of Croker's mismanagement and tack of political sagacity in the struggle, does not mince words. He denounces in unmeasured terms Croker's attack upon the judiciary as bad politics and says also that Croker talked too much. Mr. Croker was deeply stung by Mr. Critamins's assertions, for yesterday he gave out a formal statement in reply in which he gave out a formal statement in reply in which he said:

"You can say for me that Crimmins is a sorehead, and likes to see his name in print, as well as to hear himself taik. If Crimmins thought that the agitation in favor of Judge Daly would hurr Van Wyck, why did he press it so hard? The vote for the juddelary candidates shows that Judge Daly's failure of a renomination out no figure. The chief cause of Van Wyck's defear was the popularity of the soldier candidate. Had Roosevelt run for Governor the day after he arrived from Cuba he would have been elected by 160,000 majority. Had the election been held a week later, he would have been defeated by 25,000. If Admiral Dewy ran for President of the United States to-morrow on the Democratic ticket, he would carry every State in the Union. Had Admiral Dewey opposed Roosevelt as the Democratic candidate for Governor, the Republicans would nave been overwhelmed. The Democracy of the great city never did better. It gave $4,000 majority to the ticket. Flower was elected Governor when it gave only 49,000. Hill himself, when a candidate, never carried the territory by any such vote. The success of Captain Chanler over Quigg illustrates the popularity of a selder candidate. He won in a district that was Republican by What will you say about the conduct of the cam-

Quigg illustrates the popularity of a seidler candidate. He won in a district that was Republican by 11.00.

"What will you say about the conduct of the campaign outside of New-York?"

Mr. Croker replied: "I have nothing to do with the campaign out of New-York City. The rest of the State was in charge of the State Committee and others. As to what they did I have nothing to say."

This last remark was considered significant, as it indicated that Croker was giving Hill a little slap for not doing his duty up the State. The indications are that within a short time the fight between Hill and Croker will be on in carnesst, and croker will have his hands full between a revolt in his own organization and a contest with the ex-Senator.

Another source of trouble for Croker, though not an immediate one, is the silver men. The silver had contest with the delegates from the regular organization, elect delegates to the Convention of 1900 and contest with the delegates from the regular organization. The next National Convention is almost certain to be a free silver body, and that element of the party is headed by ex-Governor Stone, of Missourl, who declared previous to the Syracuse Convention that if the State organization here falled to reaffirm the Chicago platform in the State Convention its delegates would not be seated.

MR. CROKER CALLS ON MR. DEPEW. THEY HAVE AN INTERESTING TIME DIRECT STING CAMPAIGN RESULTS.

One of Chauncey M Depew's callers yesterday was Richard Croker. He went to the Grand Cen-tral Station with Senator McCarren, and chaited tral Station with Senator McCarren, and chaited with Mr. Depew for some time. Despite their dif-ference of belief politically, Mr. Depew and Mr. Croker are personally good friends, and their talk yesterday was interesting. Mr. Croker spoke of the campaign and told what in his opinion caused defeat. Mr. Denew was cheerful and happy in the knowledge that he did much to contribute to the paigning, and Mr. Croker chided him with it. It is pretty well known that if Mr. Croker could only pretty well known that if Mr Croker could only induce Mr. Depew to come into Tammany Hall he would be happy, as he has a high opinion of Mr. Denew's political sagacity and his effectiveness as a campaigner. Mr. Depew wouldn't talk about the conference, and said it was only a friendly meeting, and Mr. Croker dismissed it with the same belief comment.

ing, and Mr. Croker dismissed it with the same brief comment.

Mr. Depew vesterday received a telegram from an East Side Democratic leader, in which he said: "If it hadn't been for you we would have had a Democratic Governot."

However that may be," said Mr. Depew, "the success of our ticket was largely due to the personality of the candidate. He neutralized all the discouraging conditions of Republican success, it is a tribute to Colonel Roosevelt, and uside from that his canvass was handled with prudence, skill and energy by Mr. Odell, and certainly Senator P-att, in his long career, was never wiser or more efficient as a party leader."

TALK ABOUT THE SENATORSHIP

THE MEN MENTIONED FOR THE PLACE-MESSRS. DEPEW AND ODELL CONFER WITH MR. PLATT

While there was much talk yesterday at the headquarters of the Republican State Committee, in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, about the choice of a successor to Edward Murphy, ir. in the United States Senate, none of the leading Republican politicians there would make a prediction or express a preference Friends of Chauncey M. Depew, Joseph H. Choate, Governor Frank S. Black, General Stewart L. Woodford and other prominent Republicans who have been mentioned as probable candidates for the Senatorship are urging consideration of their names in a quiet way, but nothing like an active canvass on behalf of any man has been begun. Benjamin B. Odell, jr., who has been mentioned as a probable candidate for the Senatorship, said yesterday that he could not talk on that subject. "I have hardly got through with the work of the State campaign yet," he said, "and I want time to turn around and breathe before thinking of going into another campaign. Senator Platt said late in the afternoon, when Senator Platt sald late in the afternoon, when he returned to the hotel from his downtown office, that he had not been asked to use his influence on behalf of any candidate for the Senatorship, and he had nothing more to say on the studget. There was a report that friends of Governor Black would make a determined fight for his election to the Senatorship, and that they had appealed to Senator Platt not to oppose him. Senator Platt said he had received no information to justify such a report.

Ender the new State Constitution the Legislature must meet in joint session on the second Tuesday after the first meeting of the Legislature in January to elect a United States Senator. The Legislature will hold its first meeting on Wednesday, January 4, and the election of a United States Senator will come, therefore, on January 17. Republican leaders say that there is time enough to make a canvase for United States Senator after the Legislature meets, and it would be idle to speculaic much in advance of the first Wednesday in January about the choice of a Republican to succeed Mr. Murphy in the Senate.

Last night Chauncey M. Depew and Chairman Odeli had a long conference with Senator Platt in the latter's room in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, in the Senate.

Last night Chauncey M. Depew and Chairman odeli had a long conference with Senator Platt in the latter's room in the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Mr. Depew and Mr. Odell had a quiet talk together after they left Senator Platt's room. Later Mr. Depew's attention was called to a report that Richard Croker had offered Demotratic aid to secure his election to the United States Senate, and he said to several newspaper men: "That report is ridiculous. The man who gets the most votes in the Republican cus will receive all the votes of the Republican members of the Legislature, and will be elected Senator. Any Republican who would go outside of the caucus and seek the aid of Democratis would not be worthy of election to the office. Mr. Croker came around to my office today to ask about trains, and we had a talk about the campaign which had closed. He said to me about what he said in an interview published in the evening newspapers, and nothing was said about the Senatorship."

When Mr. Depew was asked if he was a candidate for the office of Senator, he replied with a smile: "My friends all over the State are interview published; "My friends all over the State are interview published;"

sisting upon making me a candidate for that office, and I am not discouraging them." Mr. Odell said: "I am not yet in the hands of my friends."

WALL STREET FEELS THE EFFECT. A RISE IN STOCKS DUE TO THE SUCCESS OF

THE REPUBLICANS.

With the establishment of the certainty yes terday that the next House of Representatives as well as the United States Senate would have a safe Republican majority, the maintenance of the gold standard and of the National honor being thereby assured, the values of securities rose rapidly, the net advances for the day averaging from 1 to 3 per cent. The total sales of shares on the Stock Exchange were nearly 750,000, the heaviest day's business since the booming days of last summer; and in the bond department the transactions were by far the largest on record, the total sales being more than $10,000,000, par value. The previous maximum in the bond market was $7,500,000 on a day in the first week of August. Investment buying was a marked feature of yesterday's stock market, and there was also a good foreign demand for stocks. The tone of the market was one of actual esthusiasm for the decisive defeat of the freesilver party in the States west of the Mississippi in which silver had been made a campaign issue, coupled with the fact of Republican as-cendancy in both branches of Congress, was felt cendancy in both branches of Congress, was felt by everybody to mean that the business and financial interests might now feel safe for years to come from the danger which so long has threatened them from the assaults of the advo-cates of repudiation and of all sorts of financial experiments. Of course, there was an active bull speculative movement yesterday, and, equally of course, there were toward the close of the day heavy speculative profit-taking sales. But these offerings were promotily absorbed, and had more the effect of preventing a further rise than of depressing prices, which closed for rise than of depressing prices, which closed for most issues at nearly the highest figures of the
